Jury In Woods Case Equally Divided.

Sheriff's Fees.

Cleveland Woman Sues Akron Man For Divorce.

He Claims Too Much Mother-In-Law A. & P. CORN STARCH

Some time ago Sheriff Kelly gave notice that he would not serve summons in divorce cases until his fees Finest Arabian, Java and Mocha for the work have been paid.

He has demonstrated that this was no idle boast. One case is now tied up because of the plaintiff's failure to comply with the new rule. The petition in the divorce action of Tillie M. Prittie vs. Thomas H. Prittie was filed a week ago. The sheriff's fees have not been paid and the defendant has received no official notice of the action.

Disagreement

The jury in the Woods will case cannot reach an agreement. The urors were charged Wednesday Since that time they have not been anywhere near deciding on a verdict. The majority of the jurors, it is said, have voted to set the will aside. Several ballots are alleged to have stood 7 to 5 in favor of the plaintiffs. Friday morning it was reported that the vote stood 6 to 6.

Foreign Divorce.

William Cruxton, a blacksmith at # the plant of Collins & Co., has been sued for alimony and divorce by his wife; Jennie Cruxton, of Cleveland. She charges him with cruelty, neglect and drunkeness. Summons come to Akron and reside with him but she refuses to leave home.

New Pleadings.

T. J. Leeser has filed an answer and cross petition in the case of Hulda Buckingham vs. Frances Buckingham et al. He has a claim for $108.78 against the defendants. S. F. Sweitzer et al., assignees o the Valley Rubber company, have sued Charles Rempus for $325, al-
